" Caring Choices, Caring Conversations "

Twin Towers is introducing a new service for residents and families called Advance Care Planning.

What is Advance Care Planning? It involves three steps:

- a) Thinking about what medical treatments you would or would not want in the future.
- b) Documenting these care preferences through advance directives.
- c) Having conversations with your family about your wishes.

If done properly, Advance Care Planning can relieve your family or caregiver of the stress of trying to make decisions about your care in a crisis situation. Filling out the forms is easy the more difficult part is having the conversation with your loved ones. We're here to help!

Twin Towers now has a team of associates who are trained as facilitators in Advance Care Planning. The team is offering a workshop called "Caring Choices, Caring Conversations" for residents and families/caregivers November 19 from 2:30 to 3:30 p.m. and again from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. Come and meet team members, learn more about Advance Care Planning and how to talk with your loved ones about your values, hopes, and care preferences. Please RSVP to Jennifer Warren in Pastoral Care at ext.2005 by November 16, and let her know if family members or caregivers will be coming also.

The Dayton Art Institute - American Sampler: Grandma Moses and the Handicraft Tradition and Lunch at The Leo Bistro

10:00am- Pick Ups Begin Cost: Museum Ticket $11.00, Menu Price ranges from $7.99 and up

Anna Mary Robertson Moses (1860-1961), better known as Grandma Moses, was an accomplished seamstress who did not begin painting until she was 78, after arthritis made it difficult to embroider. In the remaining 23 years she became one of the most recognized and successful folk artists, drawing on the rich tradition of handiwork that played such a major role in her life. Moses also "sampled" various styles of popular culture prints such as Currier and Ives, as well as topographical and birds-eye view landscapes, all of which served to inform her visual vocabulary. This exhibition is the first of its kind to explore her painting with her handicraft and other types of handiwork. Featuring more than 45 paintings, embroideries, quilts, popular prints and a recreation of her studio by Luken Interiors, this exhibition is sure to be of interest to young and old.

THE CONNECTION

Boyce Bicycles Bucket List

" I came up with a bucket list a while back and Bike Adventure (GOBA) with a friend. Despite intentional efforts to push my thoughts and will to override what my body was telling me, three months before the ride I hit the panic button! I work a full time job plus a part time job and I knew I was going to need some help if I expected to cross GOBA off my bucket list.

I reached out to Wellness Specialist, Matt Carrigan at The Connection, whom I knew was also a personal trainer. He wrote an exercise program for me and gave me some pointers that got me ready! Training included aqua aerobics, weight lifting, and of course actual bike riding.

I began my journey on Saturday June 20, 2015 in the soggy fairgrounds of Van Wert, Ohio. Some locals told me how much rain they had been getting which led me to the decision to set up my tent for the night. I stared at the moon before falling asleep, but unfortunately I was woken up by a thunder storm.

Most days consisted of the following: we started riding around 6:00am until about 3:00pm, with three food breaks. Food and encouragement was provided by scout, school, or church groups. The support for all the bike riders was incredible! Each day brought new scenery and activities.

Wednesday evening found me in a quiet spot on the beautiful Defiance College campus to sit down and do some writing. Later in the week, some riders that were musicians played for us at the campgrounds. On the last evening in Ottawa, I was swing dancing and somehow learned a Jewish Folk dance!

In retrospect, it was a refreshing change to get a moment to quietly watch the moon rise, write letters, get a little sunburnt, have sore muscles, and check one more thing off my bucket list. "

~ Judith Ann Boyce: 255 miles ridden on my bicycle in Northwestern Ohio.
