

LEC and TWC Have Officially Affiliated

Loveland, OH – Senior living community, Life Enriching Communities (LEC) has joined with Columbus, OH-based The Wesley Communities (TWC) as of May 1st.

LEC and TWC have been in discussions for several months regarding a full affiliation and as of May 1st, the appropriate documents have been signed. Both boards have approved the arrangement in which TWC becomes an affiliate of LEC reporting up through its organizational structure.

With this expansion comes an additional __ independent living apartments and __ assisted living apartments added to campus with occupancy beginning immediately.

TWC has a 50-year history of providing assisted living, memory care, and nursing care services in the city of Columbus. TWC are independent not-for-profit organizations dedicated to providing excellence in health care.

“One of our strategic initiatives over the last several years has been to proactively pursue affiliations and partnerships within the senior living sector,” says Scott McQuinn, President/CEO of LEC.

“The senior living landscape has seen significant consolidation and we believe this will continue. Some of the pressures in the market that are driving this consolidation are the complexities of health care, competition, ability to attract and retain talent, technology, and financial capacity. We are looking forward to working with the team at The Wesley Communities to establish greater efficiencies and effectiveness to benefit the residents and associates of each community.”

One hundred-twenty-year-old Life Enriching Communities serves over 1800 people in the greater Cincinnati area through the Twin Towers (College Hill) and Twin Lakes (Montgomery) senior living communities – offering accommodations for independent lifestyles, assisted living memory care services, rehabilitative therapies, and nursing care, the Life Enriching Communities Foundation and Confident Living, a continuing care at home program. The organization employs 550 individuals.

Life Enriching Communities owns and operates Twin Lakes, Twin Towers, and Concord Reserve Senior Living Communities which offer accommodations and services for independent lifestyles, assisted living services, short-term rehab, adult daycare, and long-term nursing services. We are committed to enhancing adult lifestyles through a philosophy of whole-person wellness. Life Enriching Communities is affiliated with the West Ohio Conference of the United Methodist Church and welcomes people of all faiths.

Contact Sharon Menke, Senior Director of Marketing and Public Relations, for more information (513.317.1870) or sharon.menke@lec.org.